Our Representative in Congress.

It is with no ordinary pleasure that we place at the head of our columns, to-day, the name of Hon. R. G. Horr as the Republican candidate for Congress. He has been tried, as in a furnace of fire, and found to be a man of the highest order of statesmanship. His election is a foregone conclusion, and the people of the 8th Congressional district are sure of having a man to speak for them whose reputation is national. The official proceedings of the convention will appear next week, as we have not time this Friday morning to put them in type, and will only add, that the Convention was fully attended, entirely harmonious, and decidedly enthusiastic.

Just why the resolution endorsing our popular member of Congress, was omitted from the report of the proceedings of the county convention, published in the Post and Tribune, is a mystery to Mr. Spaulding's many friends.

A greenback exchange calls the resumption act of 1875 "infamous." What do the working men of Shiawassee county think of that? A bill "infamous" that increased the value of every day's work fully 25 per cent. Yet that is just what the resumption act did.

The balance of cash in the State treasury, August 12, was $1,662,764.79, receipts for the week ending Aug. 19 were $29,704.32; payments for the same time, $6,788.35; leaving a balance Aug. 19, 1882, of $1,685,680.76; of which $588,000 belong to the sinking fund, $501,616.61 are held in the trust funds, and $596,061.15 are available for general purposes.

The Democratic and Greenback State conventions were held on Wednesday. To the several candidates placed in nomination by these conventions, we specially commend the following from the Chicago Tribune: "No appropriations have been made for improving the navigation of Salt Creek, but the travel that way this fall is going to be immense."

It is possible the Hastings Home Journal can tell the public how it was that "the Democrats in 1878 amended the infamous resumption act by a supplemental one, forbidding the retirement of any more of the people's money," when that bill originated in a Republican Senate, and was first passed by said Republican Senate, and only acquiesced in by a Democratic House, by a vote that was made up of just about an equal number of Republicans and Democrats. And then again, what the action of the Democratic party has to do with the present policy of the greenbackers?

Post and Tribune: "General Logan thinks it too early to take on worry about who will be the next President. That note will find many and ready endorsers."

The greenbackers of Ionia county, by a vote of 57 to 5, resolved at their convention on the 12th inst., that they did not want any fusion on their plates.

The Stanton Republican: "Without any doubt the Hon. S. W. La Du will be renominated for representative from the second district of Montcalm county. Mr. La Du made for himself a splendid record during his first term in the legislature, and we trust the Republicans of his district will return him to a position where his former experience will make him a much more influential member."

We hope so too. Mr. La Du is one of nature's noblemen and we feel sure the Republicans of Montcalm cannot do better than to send him back to Lansing for another term in the House, unless they should honor him by sending him to the Senate.

Greenbackers in 1878 declared that the country was suffering for more money. The Republican party pronounced them fools, bankrupts, liars, lunatics, and thieves, but have increased the circulation about $500,000,000.—Hastings Home Journal.

The circulation increased since 1878, $500,000,000? John, is not that putting it on pretty thick? The Comptroller of the currency on the 1st day of November 1878, states the circulation of the National Bank at $320,991,795, and on the 1st day of November 1881, it was, by the same authority $358,941,488; a difference of only $37,949,693. And the outstanding legal tender notes, were precisely the same on both days, viz.: $346,681,016. As there has been substantially no other increase in the circulating medium in excess of the amount withdrawn from circulation, will the editor of the Journal inform the public just where the other $462,050,307 increase came from? The fact is the increase in the circulating medium of the country has been less than one-tenth of what the legitimate increase of the business of the country would have demanded had there not been an excess in 1878. There being an abundance of currency now for all business purposes proves conclusively there was a large excess in 1878.

It is to be presumed that so experienced a man as the P. and T. correspondent at Corunna, can tell the public why in his dispatch to the Tribune concerning the proceedings of the Republican County Convention, he printed the preamble to the first resolution as a resolution, and why he omitted the resolution endorsing Hon. O. L. Spaulding, who in the other part of the dispatch he call an Ex-Representative. Also, his authority for saying "Shiawassee is strongly in favor of T. W. Ferry's. Hubbell's connection with the attack on Ferry warmly denounced." Certainly he did not find in the proceeding of the convention any authority for either statement. The editor of THE TIMES drafted the resolutions. They were unanimously approved first by the committee on resolutions and then by the convention, and we know that no such purpose was intended by the Resolution. We did not intend to indorse or condemn either Ferry or Hubbell, but simply to speak an emphatic word for union and harmony in the party, and fair play towards supposed or avowed candidates for office, on their part and on the part of their friends towards other candidates and their friends, whether the office was that of United States Senator, or Coroner of Shiawassee County. Any person who attempts to put any other construction on that resolution simply misrepresents its purpose and its language.

Your committee on resolutions beg leave to submit the following report: WHEREAS, We regard with unalloyed satisfaction the able, efficient, and impartial action of Hon. David H. Jerome as Governor of this State, and believe the best interest of the State will be subserved by the his re-election, therefore,

Resolved, That the delegates from this county be and they are hereby requested to use all honorable means for his re-nomination by the convention at Kalamazoo.

Resolved, That in Roswell G. Horr the people of the 8th Congressional district have a Representative who has justly won the gratitude of the nation by his bold and manly support of those measures effecting the highest interests of the people of the country generally and especially of his immediate constituents, and that we favor his re-nomination by the forthcoming Congressional convention.

Resolved, That we are proud of the record made by Hon. O. L. Spaulding as Representative in Congress from the 6th district, and deeply regret, that, by the re-organization of the Congressional districts by the late Legislature, we are deprived of being able to express at the polls our high estimation of his services.

Resolved, That we believe any assaults on private character, by rival candidates for official position, is detrimental to the best interests of the public and destructive of the unity of action essential to success, both on the part of individuals and the party, and that with it, or the policy that promotes it, we have no possible sympathy.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Shiawassee county are in favor of the submission to a vote of the people of any amendment to the constitution of our State, for which a respectable proportion of the people of the State may petition.

On motion of J. L. Simson, the county committee were requested to call the county convention for the nomination of county officers on Saturday the 2d day of September at eleven o'clock a.m.

On motion of Charles Holman, the convention adjourned sine die.

The Demo-Green State Ticket.

The Democratic and Greenback State Conventions held at Jackson and Grand Rapids on Wednesday nominated a confusion ticket as follows:

Governor, Josiah W. Begole; Lieutenant Governor, Eugene Pringle; Secretary of State, A. J. Shakespeare; Commissioner of the State Land Office, John F. Vandewater; Superintendent of Public Instruction, David Parsons; Member of the State Board of Education, Clark B. Hall; State Treasurer, E. Kanter; Auditor General, James Blair; Attorney General, Timothy E. Tarsney.

Our Manufacturers.

The best interest of any place is promoted by building up its business industries, especially such industries as use labor in large quantities. One factory employing a hundred men will add to a place a population of from three to five hundred. These have to be fed and are thus a positive benefit to the farming interest in the neighborhood, creating a home market for the surplus products of the farm, and a home market is always better than a distant one, for the producer.—Again, these hundreds have to be clothed, which gives a new impetus to trade in what is known as the Dry Goods department; but at the same time these people are buying more or less in all departments of trade and thus giving a fresh impetus to business in all its various lines.—This is true everywhere, hence everywhere it is for the prosperity of any place to encourage manufacturing industries, and we are pleased to know that our people are appreciating these facts, and doing all in their power to increase the manufacturing industries of our city.

We are, also, more than pleased to learn that, the manufacturing establishments now established here are prospering, and preparing to increase their facilities. This is true of the Old Estey Company, which will soon be in condition to nearly double their present productions, for which they would have a ready market at fair paying rates. This company have been working here for years, and for a long time gave the life and vitality to the business interests of the city.—That they have done much to build it up to its present prosperous state few will pretend to deny. That its success has done much toward bringing other industries here is also true.—But it is true that our people appreciate the worth to the city, and the surrounding country, of this and the other manufacturing establishment that now exist in our city. We fear not. We are inclined to think that their importance to the present prosperity and future growth of Owosso an underestimated, and perhaps largely unknown. Money circulates freely, and trade is lively in all our business houses, but it should not be forgotten that the larger share of this money is wages paid by the productive industries of the city to the men in their employ. For instance the Estey company now employ regularly about 175 persons, their pay roll is nearly a thousand dollars per week, and they are selling not less than $150,000 a year of the goods manufactured at their shops in this city, and they are only one, though possible the largest of the establishments engaged in manufacturing, yet there are several others that weekly distribute to their employees hundreds of dollars, and whose productions annually go way up in the thousands.—The practical question of the hour in Owosso is, how can we most promptly and successfully extend our manufacturing facilities; anything that will do that will be of real and enduring value to every business man. And any party or parties with capital to invest in productive industries of any class, should be cordially welcomed, and every reasonable inducement extended to insure them that all this people can do to make any such enterprise a certain success, will be done by all our citizens.
